BLM #9:

AVI3M1 Financial Literacy & the Arts Personal Reflection

Write a personal reflection about three things you have learned from your interview analysis and your classmates' presentations. You will be graded on the content of your answers which must be supported by real-life examples or classroom lessons and the clarity of your communication skills.

Your three points can be related to any of the following financial literacy and the arts topics:

a. the financial advantages of an arts-based career
b. the financial disadvantages of an arts-based career
c. other lifestyle and life balance considerations related to an art-based career
d. how arts-based skills and experience can be an asset in other fields
e. a topic of your choice related to financial literacy and the arts.
