

Toronto
Artscape
Youngplace,
180 Shaw St

Cyrel Troster was the Visual Arts Department Head at Unionville High School in York Region where she designed the regional arts school (Arts York) visual art programme. She has taken art courses in Japan, England, and Tennessee and is a member of Woodlawn Pottery Studio.

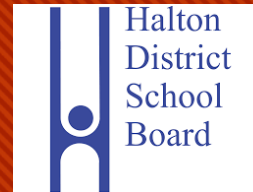

Kitchener
Treehaus
Co-operative Space
79 Joseph St.,

Michele Kleinschuck has taught for 20+ years in elementary schools in Waterloo Region, Hamilton-Wentworth and North York. There will be opportunities to explore a variety of drawing and printmaking techniques.

October 28

Oakville
Forest Trail P.S.
1406 Pine Glen Rd.

Brooke O'Connell has been a visual arts teacher with the Halton District School Board for over 10 years. She earned a university degree in Visual Arts, and is a practicing artist. Her favourite art forms are oil painting, printmaking, and sculpture.

Dave Mills has been teaching visual arts in the Halton District School Board for over 20 years. He enjoys all media and art making, and has a passion for clay work and print making. He also likes to focus on integration of visual arts, particularly with language arts.

Barrie
PRNT Collective 25 Hart Dr.

Tim Laurin is the founder of the PRNT Collective. Tim originally graduated from Sheridan College, School of Design in 1985 and recently completed his MFA in Visual Arts, majoring in Printmaking at York University.

Jeanette Luchese, an artist creating within various disciplines, and a graduate of Georgian College and Sheridan College.

Rodman Hall
ART CENTRE

Brock University

St. Catharines
Rodman Hall Art Ce
Brock University
109 St. Paul Cres.

Shauna Daley is an Artist and a Teacher with a Master's degree in Art Education with a focus on critical/creative thinking and drawing. She believes artistic endeavours can help people learn across various subject matter, and can help develop an identity that is connected to the external world as well as to the internal self.